Criminal Injuries Compensation

“Hate Crime” is a blight on our society and takes many forms.

It can be a one-off incident or a repeated attack and causes untold personal suffering to the victim.

Those people who experience such a crime, too often, regrettably, remain silent.

There is, however, a Government Scheme, paid for by the Public Purse, whose very purpose is to financially compensate people for such attacks upon them, be it verbally or physically.

The compensation is for physical or psychological injury, or both.

So speak out, and talk to us, or put such victims you may know of, in touch with us, and see if we can, in some way, help to right these wrongs.

Don't hesitate to call us or e-mail Eamonn Sexton, or Milli Dodd, if you want to know how, or more.
